

The Department of English has organized the Swatch Bharath Camp on 18.11.2016 at Enathur village. The motive of the camp is to develop the social responsibility among the students. During this Camp, the students and all the Faculty members of English department actively involved in cleaning the temples at Enathur village. Dr. T. Venugopal, Dean, Faculty of Arts and Humanities, Mrs. A. Mathini, Head, Department of English and all the Faculty member of English department presided over the camp.