

One Day Seminar on “Demonetization & e-Transaction” was organized by the Faculty of Arts & Humanities on 03.02.2016. In the first session Mrs. A. Mathini, Head, Department of English welcomed the gathering. Prof. T. Venugopal, Dean, Faculty of Arts & Humanities delivered the inaugural address. Mr. Ravendiran , Finance Officer presented the lecture on “Digitilization”. He elaborated the importance of digitalization and its benefits in his speech. In the second session, Prof. Dr. Sarangan, Personal Secretary to Vice Chancellor delivered the lecture on ‘The impacts of demonetization in the Services Sector’. In the third session, Mr. T. Pushpanathan, Asst. Prof., Department of English delivered the lecture on ‘e-Transaction’. During his presentation, he described the methods of transaction through online and offline. At the end, Mrs. N. Vijayalakshmi, Head, Department of Tamil proposed the vote of thanks.