

The Department of English has inaugurated a literary forum titled “Coffee Table” on 20-10-2016. Ms. Kamalpriya of I MA English welcomed the gathering. Mr. V. Sasi Kumar, organized the event and explained the Aim and Objective of the forum. Ms. A. Mathini, Head, Department of English delivered the inaugural address. Prof.Dr.T.Venugopal, Dean, Faculty of Arts and Humanities delivered the special address. He encouraged the students to read literary texts and asked them to make use of this kind of platform to enrich and enhance literary skills. The theme for the event had been announced earlier to the students. Later student of English Literature presented their topics on the theme “Shakespeare”. It was followed by the discussion session. A.B. Shahin of II BA English proposed Vote of thanks. The theme for the next event is “Literary Devices” and it will be conducted on 17.11.2016. It is planned to conduct the events every month.