

FDP

The renowned mathematician and distinguished Professor Chukka Ramaiah visited the department of Management Studies and interacted with faculty members and students about latest applications of mathematics in business on 19-12-2018. He also provided valuable advice on career enhancement to faculty members and importance of character at work places to students.

