

The Department of Management Studies of SCSVMV organized one day workshop for MBA students on the topic of “Corporate expectations from management students” on 16th September 2014 at MBA Seminar Hall from 9.30 am to 4.30 p.m. The workshop was conducted by Knowledge Capital Investment Group (KCIG), Chennai. The workshop was started with the Welcome Address by Dr.V.Ramanathan, Head of the Department of Management Studies. The introduction of experts and the essence of workshop were highlighted by Prof.Dr.K.P.V.Ramanakumar, Dean (FMS). The workshop started with the general introduction by Shri. Chandrasekaran, founder cum chairman of KCIG, Subsequently the importance of soft skill enhancement, presentation skills, report generation and writing, team building methods were narrated during the workshop by the expert team. The workshop also provided hands on exercises to the participants in the zones of communication, decision making, analytical and logical reasoning. The workshop comes to a successful end with active question and answers session between students and experts.