Central Instrumentation Centre

Central Instrumentation Centre was set up in the year 2014 to capitalize on the mature infrastructure of equipment and expertise established in the University. The Centre channelizes these resources towards the realization of products that will aid educational institutes of higher learning to achieve the excellence in the academic standards. The Centre has charted its activities under the following broad areas:

- Development of Analytical Instruments as import substitution Due to high cost of analytical instruments and need to import them, only theoretical concepts are imparted to students in most of the educational institutions. Developing low-cost versions would serve for demonstrating the principles of these high technology instruments in laboratory and enabling hands-on experience to students. These projects are carried out with funding from Government Agencies as well as with funding from the University
- Development of customized instrumentation Development of customized instruments or sensors for research purposes getting fund from the funding institutes
- Carrying out projects of societal relevance
