

Onam Celebration (11.09.2024)

The School of Education of Sri Chandrasekharendra Saraswathi Viswa Mahavidyalaya celebrated the Onam festival on 11.09.2024 at 10.30 AM in the Multipurpose Hall. The festival of Onam is dedicated to the King Mahabali who is believed to visit Kerala during Onam. All the faculty members extended their Onam wishes to the students. Students decorated the department premises beautifully with pookalam, an essential part of Onam celebrations. They performed traditional dance form Thiruvathira. Additionally there were musical performances, including classical and folk songs. One of the highlights of the Onam celebration was the grand Onam Sadhya, a traditional feast served to all the students and faculty members. Students participated in all the events with great enthusiasm and joy.
